

300 Side Hustles with Nano Banana

Introduction to Nano Banana

In recent months, a new wave of AI technology has shaken the creative world. Google quietly released a powerful image editing model that the community nicknamed “Nano Banana.” While the name might sound silly, the tool itself is anything but — it’s one of the most advanced and flexible image manipulation systems available today.

Unlike older AI art tools that focus mainly on generating images from scratch, Nano Banana specializes in image editing and transformation. It takes an existing photo or design and allows you to modify it with natural language prompts. Want to remove an object from a photo? Swap outfits? Change hairstyles? Transform a person into a cartoon? Or even redesign a living room without moving a single chair? Nano Banana makes it possible — and remarkably easy.

Google first made Nano Banana accessible through AI Studio and Gemini, and quickly it spread across other platforms like Adobe Firefly, Freepik, Crea, and more. Anywhere you see Google’s latest image-editing capabilities, you’re most likely seeing Nano Banana at work.

What makes Nano Banana stand out are a few key strengths:

- Unmatched editing precision → It can remove or replace objects in photos seamlessly, blending them so naturally that it looks real.
- Style transformation → It can reimagine an image in countless styles (anime, watercolor, retro, 3D, Studio Ghibli, cyberpunk, etc.).
- Character consistency → It keeps characters recognizable across multiple scenes, making it possible to create storybooks, comics, or branded characters.
- Speed & accessibility → Most edits take just seconds, and it’s available for free or at very low cost on many creative platforms.

Because of these features, entrepreneurs, freelancers, and creators have already started using Nano Banana to launch side hustles, digital businesses, and full-time careers. From selling personalized pet portraits on Etsy, to offering virtual staging services for real estate, to building digital product bundles with PLR rights, the opportunities are massive.

This ebook compiles 300 different side hustle ideas powered by Nano Banana — practical, creative, and ready-to-launch. Whether you’re a designer looking to expand your services, an entrepreneur seeking new income streams, or simply curious about AI’s potential, this guide will give you the roadmap to start monetizing one of the most exciting AI tools available today.

Welcome to the world of Nano Banana — where creativity meets opportunity.

1. Remove unwanted people from travel/family photos

Tourists often have strangers in their vacation shots. You can offer a gig (Fiverr, local service) where you take their image, remove extra people, and give them a clean memory photo.

2. Object removal for real estate

Houses for sale often have trash bins, wires, or signs in photos. You can use Nano Banana to remove them instantly, making the property more attractive.

3. Background cleanup for eCommerce

Sellers on Amazon, Flipkart, Meesho, or Etsy need plain white/clean backgrounds. You can batch-edit their images and charge per product listing.

4. Convert selfies into professional headshots

Many job seekers or freelancers can't afford photographers. Offer a service where you turn casual selfies into polished LinkedIn or resume headshots.

5. Enhance LinkedIn profile photos

Similar to #4 but aimed at professionals—make them look confident, trustworthy, and “executive” level.

6. Transform casual selfies into passport photos

Nano Banana can clean, center, and brighten selfies to passport size. Partner with local travel agencies or sell online.

7. Make old wedding photos look new

Colorize and enhance vintage black-and-white wedding pictures, restoring them into full-color prints that families will treasure.

8. Convert blurry event photos into sharp versions

Parents, event organizers, or influencers often have blurred images. You can enhance clarity and sell as an upsell service.

9. Virtual staging for real estate

Upload empty house photos and add virtual furniture. Agents save money compared to hiring real stagers.

10. Clean and beautify spaces

For offices, restaurants, or shops, you can show them how their location would look tidier or upgraded—helps in advertising.

11. Turn people into cartoon/anime versions

This is a fun Etsy/Fiverr gig: upload someone's selfie, convert it into an anime character, and deliver as digital art.

12. Offer Studio Ghibli-style portraits

Anime fans love Studio Ghibli. Take their photo, apply the art style, and sell personalized artwork.

13. Make superhero posters

Turn clients into Iron Man, Batman, or Wonder Woman versions of themselves. Great as gifts, birthday surprises, or fan art.

14. Transform selfies into historical era portraits

"See yourself in the 1940s/1970s" is a unique gig. Perfect for nostalgia lovers or history enthusiasts.

15. Create video game-style avatars

Convert real selfies into GTA, Cyberpunk, or Fortnite-style avatars. Sell these as profile pics for gamers and streamers.

16. Add fantasy elements (elves, wings, dragons)

People love seeing themselves in fantasy settings. You can edit portraits into "magical" versions — e.g., a businesswoman turned into an elf queen with wings. Sell on Etsy, Instagram, or as gifts.

17. Generate "magazine covers" featuring clients

Turn someone into the cover star of Vogue, TIME, or People magazine. Works well as gag gifts, birthday surprises, or novelty posters.

18. Create "wanted poster" gag images

For parties or events, you can make Wild West–style wanted posters of guests, with funny crimes like “Wanted for eating all the cake.”

19. Turn kids’ drawings into professional illustrations

Parents often want to preserve kids’ doodles. You can take a crayon sketch and make it look like a polished illustration, then sell prints.

20. Make consistent avatars for influencers

Influencers often struggle to keep the same look across content. You can generate multiple scenes with the same AI character (same hairstyle, face, outfit) for branding.

21. Virtual outfit try-on

Upload a selfie + clothing image → Nano Banana makes the person wear the outfit. Perfect for fashion brands, tailors, or style bloggers.

22. Hairstyle previews

People can test how they’d look with different cuts or colors before visiting a salon. You can sell this as a beauty service online.

23. Makeup trial service

Offer “virtual makeup try-on” edits. Clients can see different lipstick, eyeliner, or full makeup looks before committing.

24. Fitness before/after mockups

Trainers often want transformation photos for marketing. You can generate realistic before/after mockups to show potential results (with disclosure).

25. Tattoo preview service

Partner with tattoo shops—clients upload a body photo + tattoo design → you place it realistically to show how it will look.

26. Virtual jewelry try-on

Shops can showcase how earrings, necklaces, or bangles look on customers. Useful for online jewelry stores without models.

27. Furniture “in-my-home” previews

Upload a customer’s living room photo and add the sofa, table, or decor piece. Makes eCommerce purchases more convincing.

28. Interior design service

Show how a plain wall looks with wallpaper, murals, or paint. Charge homeowners, interior decorators, or furniture companies.

29. Wardrobe consulting

Stylists can use AI to test multiple outfit combinations on a client, saving time before actual shopping.

30. Seasonal outfit catalogs for fashion stores

You can batch-generate customers/models wearing seasonal outfits (winter coats, summer dresses) to help brands create catalog visuals faster.

31. Create mockups of logos on merchandise

Businesses love to see how their logo looks on t-shirts, mugs, bottles, or packaging before production. You can provide instant branded mockups with Nano Banana.

32. Generate branded perfume/cosmetic product shots

Small beauty brands often can’t afford expensive photography. You can place their logo on perfume bottles, creams, or makeup products and deliver professional-looking catalog shots.

33. Design professional business cards

Take a client’s logo + details and generate sleek AI-designed business cards with modern design touches. Upsell by providing multiple variations.

34. Make online banner ads for small businesses

Offer ready-to-use banner ads with products styled in creative ways. Great for local shops, ecommerce sellers, or startups running digital ads.

35. Create unique Instagram influencer promo shots

You can stage influencers holding products in luxury settings (beach, gala, trendy café) without them being there in person.

36. Design simple landing page mockups

Startups need websites fast. You can generate concept landing pages with Nano Banana for inspiration or early design ideas.

37. Generate stylized ad campaigns

Offer businesses themed campaigns (retro style, neon cyberpunk, minimalist). AI lets you create entire ad series at low cost.

38. Create branded merchandise previews

Make realistic previews of hats, hoodies, tote bags, or even sneakers with a brand logo. Sellers can showcase products without sampling.

39. Generate professional social media profile banners

Offer creators and companies branded banners for LinkedIn, Twitter (X), or YouTube, designed with Nano Banana.

40. Build ready-to-use YouTube thumbnails

Create clickbait thumbnails with big reactions, bold text, and eye-catching AI edits for YouTubers who need daily content.

41. Make personalized coloring book pages

Turn client photos (e.g., family, pets, kids) into black-and-white outline pages for coloring. Sell as Etsy printables or custom commissions.

42. Generate cartoonized pet portraits for Etsy

Pet owners love art of their animals. Offer cartoon, anime, or fantasy versions of pets as wall prints.

43. Offer “fantasy travel postcards”

Take a customer's selfie and place them in exotic or imaginary destinations (Paris in the 1800s, Mars colony). Sell as novelty postcards.

44. Create unique wedding invitation art styles

Couples can upload their photo and get a personalized illustration for their wedding invitations in any theme (vintage, modern, Disney-style).

45. Make “custom family cartoon portraits”

Turn a full family photo into a cartoon group picture. These are very popular for holiday cards and gifts.

46. Sell printable wall art generated from Nano Banana

Abstract, retro, or themed AI images can be turned into high-resolution wall art files. You can sell them as instant downloads on Etsy, Gumroad, or Creative Market.

Turn people into characters in a short comic strip. Parents love these for kids, and adults enjoy them as novelty gifts.

48. Generate fantasy maps (for D&D or novels)

Writers and gamers often need custom maps. You can create isometric or illustrated fantasy maps for campaigns, novels, or games.

49. Offer printable affirmation/quote posters

Design motivational quotes on AI-styled backgrounds. These are bestsellers on Etsy, especially when bundled as digital downloads.

50. Sell themed clipart packs

Create niche clipart packs like kawaii food, fantasy animals, or seasonal icons. Teachers, bloggers, and designers buy these bundles to use in projects.

51. Virtual landscaping for backyards

Real estate photos often have plain yards. You can show how a garden, patio, or pool would look—helping agents and homeowners sell faster.

52. Home renovation previews

Upload “before” images of a kitchen, living room, or exterior and generate realistic “after” designs. Contractors and interior designers will pay for this.

53. Convert empty rooms into fully furnished spaces

Virtual staging saves money compared to renting furniture. Real estate agents can market faster with your edits.

54. Show multiple flooring options in the same room

Clients can upload a photo of a room, and you can swap flooring styles (wood, marble, tiles) to help them decide.

55. Change wall colors or add wallpaper virtually

Paint companies, decorators, or homeowners will pay for this visualization service.

56. Provide “luxury staging” photos

Offer upscale interior designs (fancy furniture, chandeliers, art pieces) to make a property look premium. Realtors can attract high-value buyers.

57. Generate professional exterior shots

Take low-quality property photos and clean them up with AI edits (better lighting, cleaner sky, sharper colors).

58. Create isometric maps of neighborhoods

Turn satellite or street images into stylish isometric neighborhood layouts for developers or architects.

59. Add greenery/trees to barren property images

Developers often want plots to look lively. You can generate trees, lawns, and gardens to increase appeal.

60. Offer seasonal changes for properties

Show the same house in summer, fall, winter, or spring. Great for marketing homes year-round.

61. Fiverr/Upwork gig: AI photo cleanup

Set up a simple gig like “I will remove people or objects from your photos.” With Nano Banana, you can deliver in minutes and scale by volume.

62. Sell AI-powered creative social media posts

Small businesses need engaging content. You can offer pre-made Instagram/TikTok post images edited with Nano Banana (memes, quotes, styled product shots).

63. Create AI-driven resume/CV photo packages

Job seekers want professional portraits. You can offer a “CV photo upgrade” service where you edit casual images into sharp headshots.

64. Provide AI “branding packs” for startups

Bundle together: logo mockups, product previews, banner ads, and social media covers. Use Nano Banana for the visuals and sell as a package.

65. Generate client mockups for mobile apps

App developers often need “fake screens” shown on devices. You can place app screenshots inside lifestyle images (phone in hand, on a desk, etc.).

66. Transform low-quality headshots into team photos

Take mismatched staff selfies and standardize them into professional team portraits for a company’s “About Us” page.

67. Make fake “event promo posters”

Clubs, DJs, or comedians need promotional posters. You can generate stylish event posters quickly with AI backgrounds + text.

68. Sell digital pet portraits

Offer cute, stylized, or fantasy edits of pets (e.g., dogs as kings, cats in anime style). This niche does very well on Etsy.

69. Make profile banners for Twitch/YouTube streamers

Design eye-catching banners using AI art styles. Streamers want their branding to stand out.

70. Create printable motivational poster sets

Bundle sets of AI-styled posters with quotes like “Dream Big” or “Stay Focused.” Sell as digital downloads for offices and dorms.

71. Make product mockups in lifestyle settings

Instead of plain white background shots, show products “in use.” Example: headphones on a desk, shoes in a gym, mugs on a breakfast table.

72. Generate product catalog photos for Amazon/Meesho sellers

Sellers with no photo budget can pay you to create professional-looking catalog images from rough product shots.

73. Replace cluttered backgrounds with clean ones

Turn messy product photos into crisp studio-style images. Essential for sellers who need consistency.

74. Show products in “luxury environments”

Example: Place a perfume bottle on a marble bathroom sink or a watch on a leather desk. Makes products look premium and desirable.

75. Create variations of the same product in multiple colors

Upload one product image, then generate it in blue, red, green, gold, etc. Saves sellers time and money on multiple photoshoots.

76. Virtual packaging redesign service

Small brands want to test new packaging before printing. You can take their current label or logo and generate mockups on bottles, boxes, or pouches.

77. Generate custom t-shirt mockups for POD sellers

Print-on-demand sellers often lack good mockup images. You can put their designs on realistic t-shirt models in different settings.

78. Create Etsy shop images for personalized gifts

Sellers of mugs, pillows, or posters need lifestyle shots. You can generate polished Etsy product images that help listings stand out.

79. Offer “AI lifestyle images” for Shopify stores

Instead of boring stock photos, you can create custom lifestyle shots featuring client products in trendy homes, cafés, or offices.

80. Generate product explainer graphics

Show a product in “before vs. after” style. Example: messy desk vs. tidy desk using the client’s organizer product. Great for ads and listings.

235. Bundle with ChatGPT → “visual + script” packages

Provide businesses with both ad copy (via ChatGPT) and Nano Banana visuals. A complete done-for-you marketing kit.

236. Combine with ElevenLabs → avatar videos

Turn customer photos into animated characters with Nano Banana, then sync voices with ElevenLabs for explainer videos or virtual influencers.

237. Package with Shopify → store branding packs

Offer Shopify store owners logos, banners, and product mockups created with Nano Banana. Sell as a complete setup kit.

238. Pair with Figma → UI mockups

Web/app designers can use Nano Banana visuals as placeholder graphics in Figma UI/UX prototypes. Offer this as a design service.

239. Combine with CapCut → social media reels

Generate themed images (fitness, travel, memes) with Nano Banana, then stitch them into reels with CapCut to sell content packs.

240. Use with Gumroad → sell AI art bundles

Package Nano Banana image sets (wallpapers, icons, posters) and sell them as instant-download bundles on Gumroad.

241. Offer newsletter creators AI banner images

Substack and email newsletter writers need headers that stand out. You can design branded AI-styled banners tailored to their niche (finance, fitness, tech).

242. Provide Substack writers with themed cover art

Writers like to brand their posts with consistent visuals. You can sell themed “cover images” packs they can reuse for multiple posts.

243. Sell AI-generated Pinterest pin templates

Pinterest thrives on beautiful vertical images. You can make pin templates with Nano Banana art and text overlays for bloggers and online shops.

244. Make blog article header images

Bloggers hate using generic stock photos. Offer affordable custom headers that match the article’s topic — e.g., “AI in Healthcare” with futuristic medical art.

245. Provide AI ebook cover design services

Authors, coaches, and entrepreneurs constantly need ebook covers. You can design them in professional or fantasy styles for Amazon KDP and Gumroad.

246. Generate AI “infographic-style” social posts

Brands need infographics for Instagram and LinkedIn. You can create clean layouts with Nano Banana visuals to make data eye-catching.

247. Sell niche Instagram carousel packs

Pre-made carousel templates (motivational quotes, marketing tips, recipes) can be packaged and sold to influencers.

248. Make TikTok background art for skits

TikTok creators need funny, stylish backdrops. You can generate stage sets, classrooms, or futuristic rooms for their videos.

249. Offer podcasters custom cover art

Every podcast needs a cover image for Spotify/Apple. You can design unique AI-styled covers that reflect the show's theme.

250. Create AI-themed Zoom/Teams backgrounds

Remote workers and professionals want unique meeting backdrops. You can sell packs like "luxury office," "minimal design," or "tropical beach."

251. Offer luxury real estate agents AI mansion staging

High-end homes look even more attractive when virtually staged with premium furniture, artwork, and landscaping. Realtors will pay more for luxury edits.

252. Create AI yacht or private jet lifestyle photos

Make clients look like they're living the luxury lifestyle. Great for influencers or businesses promoting aspirational content.

253. Generate AI dream car ownership edits

Car enthusiasts can see themselves posing with Ferraris, Lamborghinis, or vintage classics without owning them.

254. Provide jewelers with AI catalog photos

Small jewelers can send you rough shots, and you return crisp catalog-ready images of rings, necklaces, or watches.

255. Make luxury hotel marketing posters

Enhance hotel photos with AI: brighter pools, scenic backdrops, elegant interiors. Helps hotels attract premium customers.

256. Offer AI watch mockups for high-end brands

Luxury watch brands (or resellers) need pristine catalog images. You can generate mockups showing watches on wrists, in cases, or styled on luxury backdrops.

257. Generate premium fashion lookbooks

Fashion designers often need glossy spreads but can't always afford full photo shoots. You can create styled AI lookbooks featuring their clothing lines.

258. Provide luxury spa promo art packs

Spas and wellness retreats thrive on visuals. You can design relaxing AI images (candles, massage scenes, tropical resorts) for brochures and ads.

259. Create high-end event flyer visuals

Galas, operas, and luxury parties need sophisticated visuals. You can generate elegant AI flyers that look tailor-made.

260. Generate AI-enhanced fine dining menu photos

Restaurants can show dishes plated in luxury settings, styled with clean, minimal layouts for premium menus.

261. Offer marketing agencies white-label AI editing

Agencies often outsource design. You can provide AI editing services behind the scenes and let them resell it to clients.

262. Provide PR firms with AI press photos

Public relations firms need polished visuals for client announcements. You can supply portrait upgrades, branded visuals, or themed campaign images.

263. Help ad agencies with client mockups

When pitching, agencies need concept visuals. You can deliver quick mockups so they can test ideas before full production.

264. Offer design agencies AI “concept drafts”

Agencies spend days brainstorming visuals. You can deliver fast AI drafts that speed up their creative process.

265. Provide HR firms with headshot services

HR companies can offer employees professional ID/headshot packages that you edit at scale with Nano Banana.

266. Offer SaaS companies AI landing page visuals

SaaS startups need sharp visuals for their websites. You can create branded hero images, dashboards, and themed graphics.

267. Partner with architects for AI early-stage sketches

Instead of 3D software, architects can show quick AI concept designs of buildings, rooms, or neighborhoods.

268. Provide local stores with AI poster campaigns

Small businesses like bakeries or gyms need promotional posters. You can create seasonal AI posters for them affordably.

269. Offer real estate firms monthly staging subscriptions

Charge realtors a monthly fee to edit, stage, and enhance their listings regularly with AI.

270. Provide influencer agencies with “character packs”

Agencies managing influencers can get AI versions of their talent in consistent poses/styles, to use in memes, campaigns, or fan content.

271. Sell Nano Banana art packs on Etsy/Gumroad

Bundle themed AI images (fantasy animals, motivational posters, abstract wallpapers) and sell them as instant downloads. Passive income once uploaded.

272. Create AI stock photo bundles

Generate niche stock images (eco-friendly lifestyle, futuristic tech, diverse families) and sell them on stock sites or directly via Gumroad.

273. Build digital poster packs

Make collections like “10 Fitness Motivation Posters” or “20 Minimal Travel Prints” and sell them as downloadable décor.

274. Make coloring book bundles for KDP

Turn AI art into black-and-white outlines and publish full coloring books for kids or adults on Amazon KDP.

275. Sell clipart packs for teachers

Teachers buy classroom visuals. You can generate packs like “alphabet animals,” “science icons,” or “holiday clipart” and sell on TeachersPayTeachers.

276. Create PLR (Private Label Rights) AI art packs

Bundle your AI-generated images and license them as PLR so others can resell or use them in their projects.

277. Sell wedding template bundles

Design invitation templates, save-the-date cards, and thank-you notes with AI art. Package and sell them as editable bundles.

278. Build “holiday card packs”

Create seasonal greeting cards (Christmas, Diwali, Eid, Halloween) and sell them as downloadable packs on Etsy.

279. Sell PLR meme packs

Make funny, niche memes using Nano Banana edits. Sell them as PLR so businesses and influencers can rebrand and repost.

280. Create Canva template packs with AI visuals

Add your AI art into Canva layouts (social media posts, planners, ads) and sell editable templates for creators and businesses.

281. Create Christmas card AI portraits

Families or couples can upload photos → you reimagine them in Santa hats, snowy cabins, or cozy Christmas scenes.

282. Generate Halloween “scary edits”

Offer spooky transformations — zombie versions, haunted house backdrops, creepy effects. Sell as party invites or fun prints.

283. Offer Valentine's Day couple art

Turn couples into romantic cartoon, fantasy, or vintage-style portraits for Valentine's gifts.

284. Make New Year poster edits

Create festive countdown or "Happy 202X" posters with fireworks and personalized client photos.

285. Generate Easter family cartoon portraits

Families can be drawn with Easter eggs, bunnies, or pastel-themed settings. Sell as personalized Easter cards or prints.

286. Create Holi/Diwali festival photo edits

Families upload normal photos → you add colorful powders for Holi or glowing diyas and lanterns for Diwali. Sell as festive keepsakes or cards.

287. Make Ramadan/Eid holiday posters

Offer clients themed edits with crescent moons, lanterns, and family gatherings. Perfect for greeting cards, invitations, or business promotions.

288. Sell seasonal wall art packs

Design downloadable décor packs — Christmas trees, Halloween pumpkins, spring blossoms — to sell on Etsy or Gumroad each holiday season.

289. Offer graduation poster services

Turn student photos into posters with caps, gowns, and school colors. Market to parents and schools.

290. Create wedding season "custom invites"

Offer couples unique themed invitations — fantasy castles, Bollywood-style, or minimalist elegance — using Nano Banana art.

291. Sell AR-ready annotated images

Tourism boards or educators can use AR (augmented reality). You generate images with labeled annotations for museums, landmarks, or virtual tours.

292. Generate AI → 3D → STL files

Turn Nano Banana images into 3D models (via Meshy.ai) and sell them as STL files for 3D printing hobbyists.

293. Offer AI-assisted Metaverse avatars

Create stylized characters for people to use in VR/Metaverse platforms. This is a growing niche with future potential.

294. Provide VR world designers with concept art

Game or VR creators need landscapes, buildings, and objects. You can generate fast concept art for their virtual worlds.

295. Build NFT art collections

Create consistent characters or themed sets (cyberpunk cats, abstract portraits) and sell them as NFT collectibles.

---

296. Offer AI animated explainer packs

Combine Nano Banana images with animation tools (like Runway) to make explainer videos for startups. Sell as done-for-you video services.

297. Partner with 3D printing shops

Generate product designs (figurines, home décor, jewelry concepts) that shops can 3D print and sell physically.

298. Create digital “AI time-capsule” portraits

Offer clients images of what they might look like in the future (10, 20, 50 years ahead). Perfect as novelty gifts.

299. Offer AI heritage restorations

Take old or damaged family photos and restore them, even re-creating missing details with AI for precious keepsakes.

300. Package all these hustles into a course

Teach others how to use Nano Banana for side hustles. Sell an online course or eBook on Fiverr, Gumroad, or Udemy showing the step-by-step process.
